MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear BRCC Family,

As the calendar turns to February, we are often reminded of the quiet strength that lies within the depths of winter. This month, we look toward the promise of spring, and more importantly, we are called to reflect on the enduring strength of our faith and community.

I know that for many of us, this period has been challenging. We are keenly aware of the ongoing financial pressures facing our community, and the sight of fewer faces in our pews on Sunday can be disheartening. I want to address these realities not with fear, but with a message of inspiration, grounded in our shared mission.

This is a season for resilience and intentionality. Low attendance and financial strain are not failures; they are calls to action—to refine our focus and deepen our commitment.

As we continue to examine what it means to be good stewards of the resources we do have. We may need to trim budgets and simplify operations, but this exercise compels us to ensure every dollar is aligned with our most vital ministries—caring for each other and sharing the Gospel. Our giving is an act of faith, not a transaction. Even small, consistent gifts collectively sustain us.

The measure of our church is not the size of the crowd, but the depth of the connection among those present. If you are here, you are the church. Prioritize being present—whether physically or virtually—and engage fully. Your presence is the truest gift you can offer, and it fuels the spirit of those around you. Let's focus on the quality of our fellowship and service, trusting that vitality, not scale, is what truly draws people in.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

The Bible tells us in 2 Corinthians 4:16, "Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day."

We are in a time of inner renewal. The current challenges are an opportunity to prove the strength of our faith, not to question it. Think of this season as a time when God is planting a seed:

Trust the Process: Just as a seed lies dormant and unseen, preparing for growth, so too are we being prepared for a powerful future. The growth may not be visible in the offering plate or the attendance numbers today, but the spiritual and emotional roots we are developing right now will sustain us through any storm.

The Power of Two or Three: Jesus reminded us, "For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them" (Matthew 18:20). Our strength is not derived from the multitude, but from the presence of Christ in our midst. Let us celebrate every small gathering, every act of kindness, and every prayer shared, for these are the true signs of God's work.

Let us resolve to look beyond the temporary statistics and commit to nurturing the heart of our community. It is a blessing to walk this journey with each of you. Let us press forward with a spirit of hopeful expectation and unwavering faith.

With much love and prayer,

Pastor Kim
